Showcase paper: You will find some area to write an expository essay about our play. We will begin brainstorming topics on Friday, 4/4.

Performance: You will select an acting company to perform one of the scenes found on page 16 of our yellow packet. Your group will work on writing a script, creating costumes and props, and learning your lines. You are evaluated on how well your performance displays your understanding of the scene.

Here is how you will be graded:

- Skit included all members of the group
- Skit demonstrated understanding of the scene
- Students were creative in the performance
- Students used at least three props
- Students had costumes
