Consciousness and Dreaming "Quiz"
Defining Consciousness (read p. 159-160)

Writing exercise:

Step 1: Watch yourself from the outside.
Pick a recent day in your life and describe it from the third-person point-of-view (using he or she). Include details of the situation, but you cannot enter into the inner thoughts. For example, "Anna argued with her dad for 30 minutes about the car. She raised her voice and stormed off, slamming each door that got in her way."

Step 2: Rewrite, but this time do not be satisfied with merely reporting details;
include opinions, evaluations, and so on.
Only get into one character's head. For example, "Anna argued with her dad for 30 minutes and would not admit to herself that she was being stubborn. She secretly wished that he and her mom went through with the divorce." Notice it is she and not
I.

Step 3: Share stories, for those who are comfortable with doing so.

How does this relate to consciousness?

Inquiring Minds: Get into groups of four to create a list of 10 questions that you want answered in the study of these topics.
Your group will pick questions and write them down relating to your topic.
